- Stunning private roof terrace
- Direct lift access
- Access to the sought-after communal gardens
- Elegant period building moments from Gloucester Road

Description

An impeccably designed and light-filled two bed two bath apartment, arranged over the third and fourth floors of this elegant stucco-fronted period building in South Kensington. This beautifully presented apartment combines contemporary minimalist interiors with polished finishes, and offers access to the sought-after communal gardens of Wetherby Gardens. The third floor features a spacious open-plan reception and dining room, boasting south-facing sash windows, high ceilings, and a sleek black fireplace. The part-open plan fully fitted kitchen is equipped with integrated Miele appliances, white cabinetry, mirrored splashback and a striking marble waterfall island ideal for entertaining. Towards the rear, the principal bedroom benefits from fitted wardrobes and a luxurious en suite bathroom with a stunning walk-in rainfall shower. The second double bedroom, also with fitted wardrobes, is served by a contemporary shower room. A quiet alcove off the hallway provides a discreet study area beside the private lift entrance. Upstairs, a bright sunroom opens onto a generous private roof terrace. Additional features include direct lift access and bespoke storage throughout.

Situation

This unique property is located on a quiet residential street moments from the amenities of Gloucester Road. The nearest underground station is Gloucester Road (District, Circle & Piccadilly lines).
