LOCATION

The village of Cowfold is set approximately 7 miles to the south of Horsham and a similar distance to Haywards Heath, with both locations offering thriving town centres, with both independent and major retailers and numerous restaurants and coffee shops. There is a friendly C of E Primary School, St Peters, within the village and a number of senior schools that include Warden Park, Millais Girls School and The Forest Boys School within easy driving distance. The area also offers good communication links with the A24 and A23 a short drive away, that in turn lead to the South Coast, Gatwick & the M25. For access to the rail network there are stations based in both Horsham and Haywards Heath that service both London & the South East.

PROPERTY

Tenure: Freehold

The property offers good-sized accommodation, arranged across two floors, with a hallway that leads into a living room and kitchen, as well as a downstairs toilet, and offers plenty of space to take off coats and shoes as you enter the property. The kitchen with a great amount of worktop and storage space is set to the front of the house equipped with a decent range of floor and wall mounted units and space for free standing appliances, that would potentially benefit from updating. This then leads down through to the large living / dining room area with patio doors that flood the room with natural light coming through from the garden area. The first floor offers three bedrooms, 2 doubles and a single that could also be used as an ideal office space, and a bathroom with shower over the bath.

OUTSIDE

Externally, the property boasts a good-sized garden with a covered patio area and lawn, perfect for outdoor activities, garden parties, or simply enjoying the fresh air. There is also a door allowing access into the garage and an up-and-over door to the front. The front garden and driveway parking add to the appeal. In summary, this semi-detached property offers a unique blend of comfort, convenience, and tranquility.
