About the property

A charming period cottage in the heart of Gurnard village. This characterful home comes to the market chain free, perfectly placed for village amenities and yet offering the added bonus of off road parking too.

Just around the corner from the Gurnard Press Bistro, village shop and walking distance of the two local pubs. The property also sits a short stroll from the Gurnard Village Green, the sailing club and the esplanade. You'll have everything you need on foot, ensuring the car can be left safely on the driveway.

Internally, the property is presented superbly with neutral décor, period features and a homely feeling. There are two reception rooms with a handy porch upon entering plus a modern fitted kitchen, with additional utility room which opens onto the rear garden. The first floor comprises three bedrooms with bright, light and airy accommodation and a lovely outlook onto the Solent from the master.

Externally, there is a handy side access which leads to the sunny rear garden. A surprisingly well sized space which is both private and thriving with mature plants. It's the perfect space for barbecuing, entertaining and enjoying the peace and tranquillity of the location.

The property also benefits from planning permission of a double storey extension in two parts, as shown in 22/01101/HOU on the IW planning website.
