“A charming two bedroom characterful cottage standing proudly on Needham Market’s historic High Street, with pretty courtyard gardens & no onward chain.”

Description

A charming, characterful yet unlisted terraced cottage standing proudly on Needham Market’s historic High Street and just a stone’s throw from the town’s wide range of amenities.

Currently used as a holiday let, the property is offered with the added benefit of no onward chain and enjoys pretty courtyard gardens to the rear.

About the Area

Needham Market is a desirable small town situated in the heart of Mid Suffolk between the towns of Bury St Edmunds and Ipswich. There are a range of everyday amenities and individual shops including butcher, baker, tea shops/cafes, public houses, take-away restaurants, a post office and a Co-op supermarket. There is also a library, community centre, dentist and a good local primary school. Alder Carr Farm offers fresh farm food for sale and a restaurant.

Needham Market also has good transport links with bus and train services into Stowmarket and Ipswich, where there are mainline services to London Liverpool Street Station. A range of events are held throughout the year, including street fairs and raft racing at Needham Lake which is a Conservation Area with a number of countryside walks.

The nearby towns of Stowmarket, Bury St Edmunds and Ipswich provide further amenities, recreational and cultural facilities and a range of individual high street stores.
