In detail

These stunning new houses follow the building line of the street creating a series of terraced properties reflecting the housing style of the broader area, and in particular, the immediate neighbouring houses. This development is situated within close proximity to variety of restaurants, cafés, pubs and bars, as well as a range of shops and markets. The lively nature of the area and close connections into London make it an attractive hub for young professionals. The excellent State and Private schools, as well as parks make the area appealing for young couples. For more information or to register your interest please visit: www.athenlayvillas.com
