Welcome to this charming 2-bedroom bungalow nestled in the tranquil neighbourhood of Huntington, just on the outskirts of Chester. Boasting a convenient location with easy access to urban amenities yet offering the tranquillity of suburban living, this property presents an ideal opportunity for comfortable and relaxed living.

As you approach the property, you're greeted by a neatly maintained frontage, featuring parking space for two cars alongside a practical garage, ensuring hassle-free parking arrangements for residents and guests alike.

The property features a separate living room and kitchen area which has potential to knock through to make an open plan living dining area.

Both bedrooms are of a generous size which have the ability to fit a double bed plus furniture in, and the bathroom benefits from a three piece suite.

The highlight of this property is undoubtedly its delightful South Westerly facing back garden. Basking in sunshine from afternoon until late evening, this outdoor oasis provides the perfect setting for al fresco dining, gardening endeavours, or simply soaking up the sun in a peaceful environment.

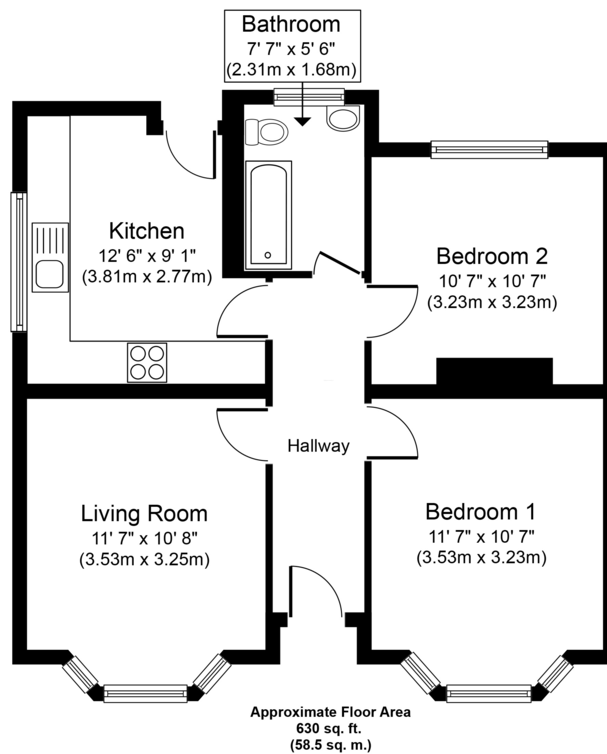

Furthermore, this bungalow presents an exciting opportunity for expansion and customization. With ample space for potential extensions or loft conversions, the property offers endless possibilities for those looking to tailor their living space to suit their needs and preferences.
