Outside

North Stow Farm is accessed by a private gated driveway leading to the house and adjacent barns. The entrance to the house itself is set around a horseshoe style driveway with brick entrance pillars to either side and a stunning vista over the paddocks looking towards Kings Forest. The in and out driveway wraps around an ancient Cedar of Lebanon tree. To the south of the house is a beautiful walled garden home to a number of mature specimen trees and the OUTDOOR SWIMMING POOL. On the north are the STABLES, PIGGERY and GARAGE/CARTLODGE. The majority of the land lies to the east of the house, largely comprising a combination of paddocks and specimen trees and shrubs bisected by the driveway leading up to the house.

There are a collection of unconverted buildings comprising a stunning timber framed BARN with red brick elevations under a pantile roof, large stable block and unique log cabin.

A further unconverted BARN of grand proportion under a pantile roof with potential for equestrian use and the prospect of residential development subject to the relevant permissions.

In all about 20 acres (sts).
