The Property

A half glazed door opens into the entrance hall with a door on the right hand side leading into a downstairs WC with opaque window to front. A kitchen/diner makes a lovely entertaining space with double doors leading out to the rear garden and plenty of space for table and chairs. A useful under stairs cupboard offers plenty of storage. The kitchen with tiled floor has been fitted with a range of matching wood effect wall, base and drawer units with worktop incorporating a breakfast bar, stainless steel sink and drainer, 'range style' cooker with extractor hood over and integrated dishwasher and fridge/freezer. The sitting room can be found on the first floor with double doors overlooking the front aspect and opening onto a feature balcony. Bedroom three on this floor overlooks the rear garden and offers good in-built cupboard storage with a secondary cupboard housing the pressurised water cylinder. The family bathroom on this floor comprises a P-shaped bath, low level WC and pedestal wash basin. Stairs rise again to the second floor landing with an access hatch to loft storage. Two double bedrooms on this floor overlook front and rear aspects respectively and both boast en-suite shower rooms as well as excellent built-in cupboard storage.

Outside

The property benefits from an allocated off-road parking space to the rear as well as further parking to the front of the property. The rear garden is fully enclosed and laid to decking and artificial grass with a raised pond and flower bed as well as a timber shed with felt roof.

Location

The property is conveniently situated for the centre of the bustling market town of Harleston. Nestled in the beautiful Waveney Valley on the old coaching route from London to Great Yarmouth, Harleston is a vibrant market town, filled with historic buildings, a beautiful church and plenty of character around every corner you turn. With good local schooling here, as well as in Stradbroke and Bungay the town further boasts an impressive array of independent shops, doctor's surgery, post office, chemist and several coffee shops. There is also a popular Wednesday market with free parking and the town of Diss, just a 15 minute drive away, boasts a direct train line to London Liverpool Street.
