Inspiration for unique architecture

Inspired by glazed vases, the elegant Cascades buildings sit in a tranquil part of White City Living next to the oriental water gardens. Connected by Japanese bridges spanning across reflecting pools and cascading waterfalls. This is a place of calm, with traditional oriental trees, plants and surrounded by 150m of water.

There are three superb collections of apartments to choose from. The Cascades Collection, the Reflection Collection and the Skyline Collection, each offering a different perspective of life at the Cascades.*

At the base of Cascades One is a restaurant and terrace overlooking the lively cascade waterfall*. Opposite are walkways through the arches to the new Westfield boulevard giving you access to a variety of shops, restaurants and offices.

THE CASCADES

OF CALM

ARCHITECTURAL

“Weaving together architecture, landscape and urban design, we shape places from city to human scale – and everything in between.”

Patel Taylor Architects

Renowned architects, Patel Taylor, took inspiration for the design of these elegant buildings from the shining pavilions and Japanese gardens of the 1908 White City Exhibition. Each building has been orientated to optimise natural light and views over the city, and every façade detailed in uniquely crafted faïence. Created in rich tones and shades inspired by the colours that together define the natural palette of each passing season.

VISION

LIFE BY THE WATER

-  150m of cascading water
-  Waterfall
-  Aquatic planting
-  Natural habitat
-  3 new bridges
-  Waterside restaurant*

In this new aquatic landscape, water will flow beneath oriental bridges and over a series of cascades before finishing at a waterfall beneath the restaurant*.

Richly planted, the landscape will feature white water lilies, flowering rushes and irises. Timber decking will provide vantage points to enjoy this tranquil setting. The planting ensures that the Water Gardens will become a valuable habitat for both birds and dragonflies.

 Oriental botanical planting

 Seating integrated with the landscape

 Hand-picked trees

 Quiet corners dedicated to calm

 Central lawn areas for yoga and meditation

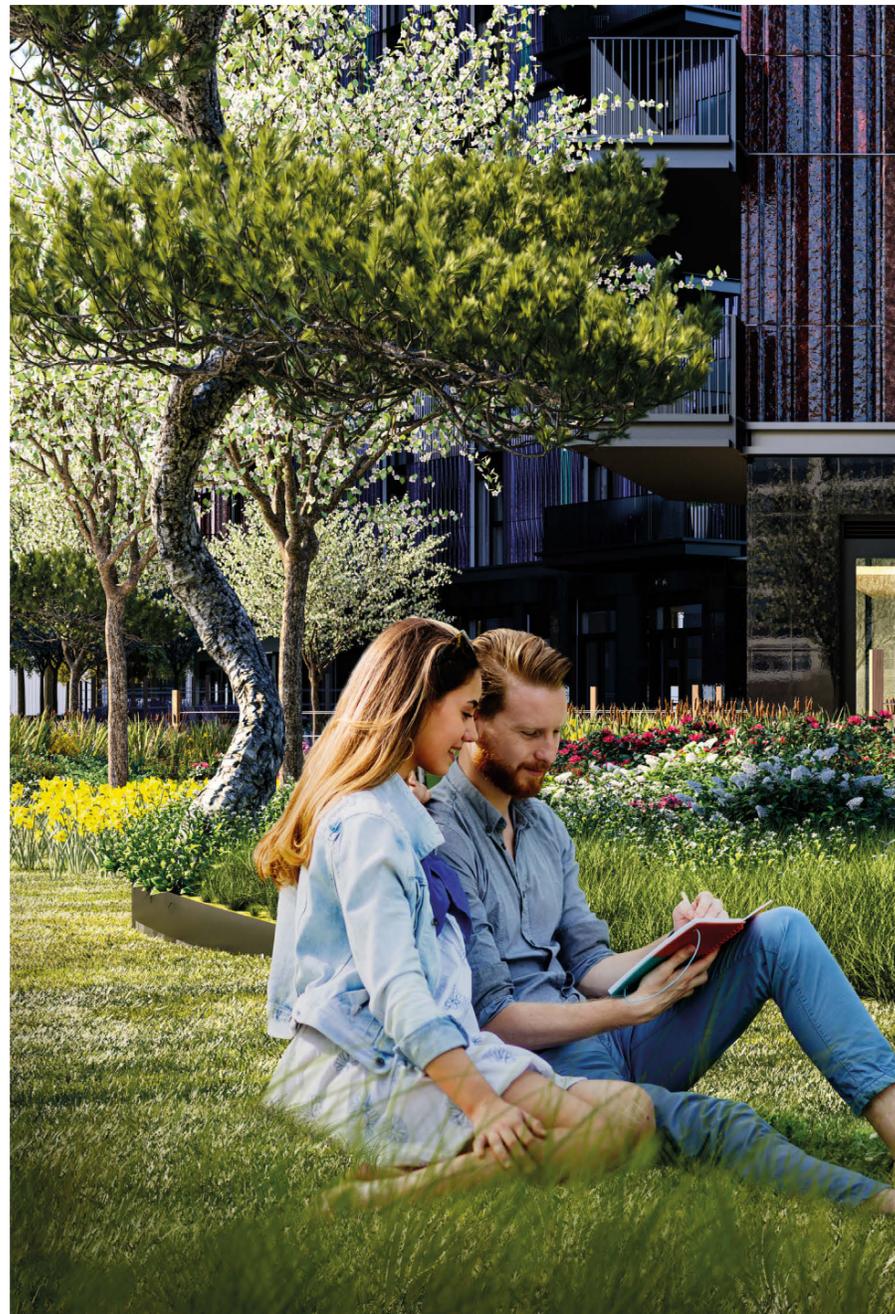

Landscape at White City Living

“ Oriental plants and grasses sit beneath canopies flowering cherry trees, clipped pines and maples. In the spring the bright red flowers of rhododendrons will contrast beautifully with the forms of evergreen Japanese hollies. The Cascades are accessed by oriental bridges which according to Japanese folk law will ward off any evil spirits. ”

Murdoch Wickham

The new Reflection and Oriental Gardens curve around the Cascades creating a green contrast to the Water Gardens. Designed by Murdoch Wickham, they are a contemporary take on Japanese landscape design with pockets of planting and quiet spaces to relax.
