

James Road, Branksome, Poole BH12 1EA

Situated within a popular cul-de-sac with similar properties around lies this end of terrace family home. The accommodation is set over three floors to include, two reception rooms, kitchen/breakfast room, two double bedrooms and a loft room. Whilst there is UPVC double glazing (including new windows) and a new boiler and central heating system, the house does require some modernisation being an unfinished project. Outside there is off road parking, a garage and a sunny aspect rear garden.

The Property

There is a new composite front entrance door leading into the porch and a UPVC double glazed door then leads in to the hallway. To the front there is a cosy reception room/snug with a bay window and the hallway leads into what is currently the lounge or separate dining room. Located behind is the kitchen/breakfast room with a door providing access to the outside and from here you will find the ground floor bathroom and utility area with the new boiler.

On the first floor there are two double bedrooms serviced by a shower room and stairs give access to the loft room which is currently being used as bedroom three.

Outside to the front there is off road parking for two cars leading to a garage and the rear garden enjoys a sunny westerly aspect.

The house is situated within a popular and convenient location and it represents an ideal refurbishment project for potential buyers who are looking to place their own touch on their family home.
