The Property

Upon entering the communal hallway, stairs and a lift provide access to the top floor and also to the underground parking space. A personal door then leads into the hallway with storage and utility cupboards. The spacious light, bright and airy dual aspect open plan lounge/kitchen/diner is a particular feature benefiting from a Juliet balcony and ample space for furniture.

There are two double bedrooms with a particularly impressive master benefiting from fitted wardrobes and a beautifully presented en-suite shower room. A stylish modern fitted family bathroom then completes the accommodation.

Externally there is an allocated underground parking space. Poole Park, The Quay, Baiter and Whitecliff Harbourside Park are fantastic for walking and enjoying the coastal scenery. The shopping centre, bus/coach terminal and a mainline London railway station are also close by.
