2 Rowells Place, Castle Cary, Somerset, BA7 7DP

A three bedroom mid terrace house set back from the road within a row of just three houses. On approaching the property there is a separate parcel of land providing generous off road parking with a car port and detached outbuilding which has planning permission to be used for the domestic and private needs of the main house.

A shared pathway leads to the property with the front door opening to an entrance hall. To your right there is a light and airy sitting room with a wide opening leading to a spacious kitchen/diner.

Moving upstairs, there is a family shower room and three bedrooms. Off the landing a staircase rises to an attic room which was converted to provide a forth bedroom. Although it has been well designed, we can not class this room as living accommodation as it has not been signed off by building control.

In summary, although this spacious property would benefit from redecoration and some updating ,there is a wonderful opportunity to create a delightful home to your own taste and style.

LOCATION: Castle Cary is an attractive and bustling market town characterised by period buildings constructed of the distinctive honey coloured stone for which the area is well known. There are many independent shops and boutiques and picture-perfect surrounding countryside. Dating back to 1855, The Market House remains the focal point of the town hosting a weekly market as well as regular events. The town is home to many independent businesses including shops and art galleries. Amenities include a nursery, a primary and a secondary school, a health centre, a dental practice, a library, a Post Office, a deli, various grocery stores, greengroceries, newsagents, chemists, public houses and tea shops. There are large supermarkets only a 15 minute drive away in the towns of Wincanton and Shepton Mallet. The newly opened 'The Newt in Somerset' just outside Castle Cary is home to beautiful countryside walks set in the grounds of a Georgian country estate. Within the estate are a hotel and spa, farm shop, restaurants and garden shop. Just a short drive away along with the fashionable town of Bruton, home to Hauser & Wirth Somerset, a pioneering world-class art gallery. The mainline railway situated on the edge of Castle Cary provides a direct line to Paddington and the A303 road link is a few miles south. There are excellent state schools in the area, and independent schools include the Sherborne and Bruton schools, Millfield, Wells Cathedral, Hazelgrove, Port Regis and St Mary's Shaftesbury.
