THE LOCATION

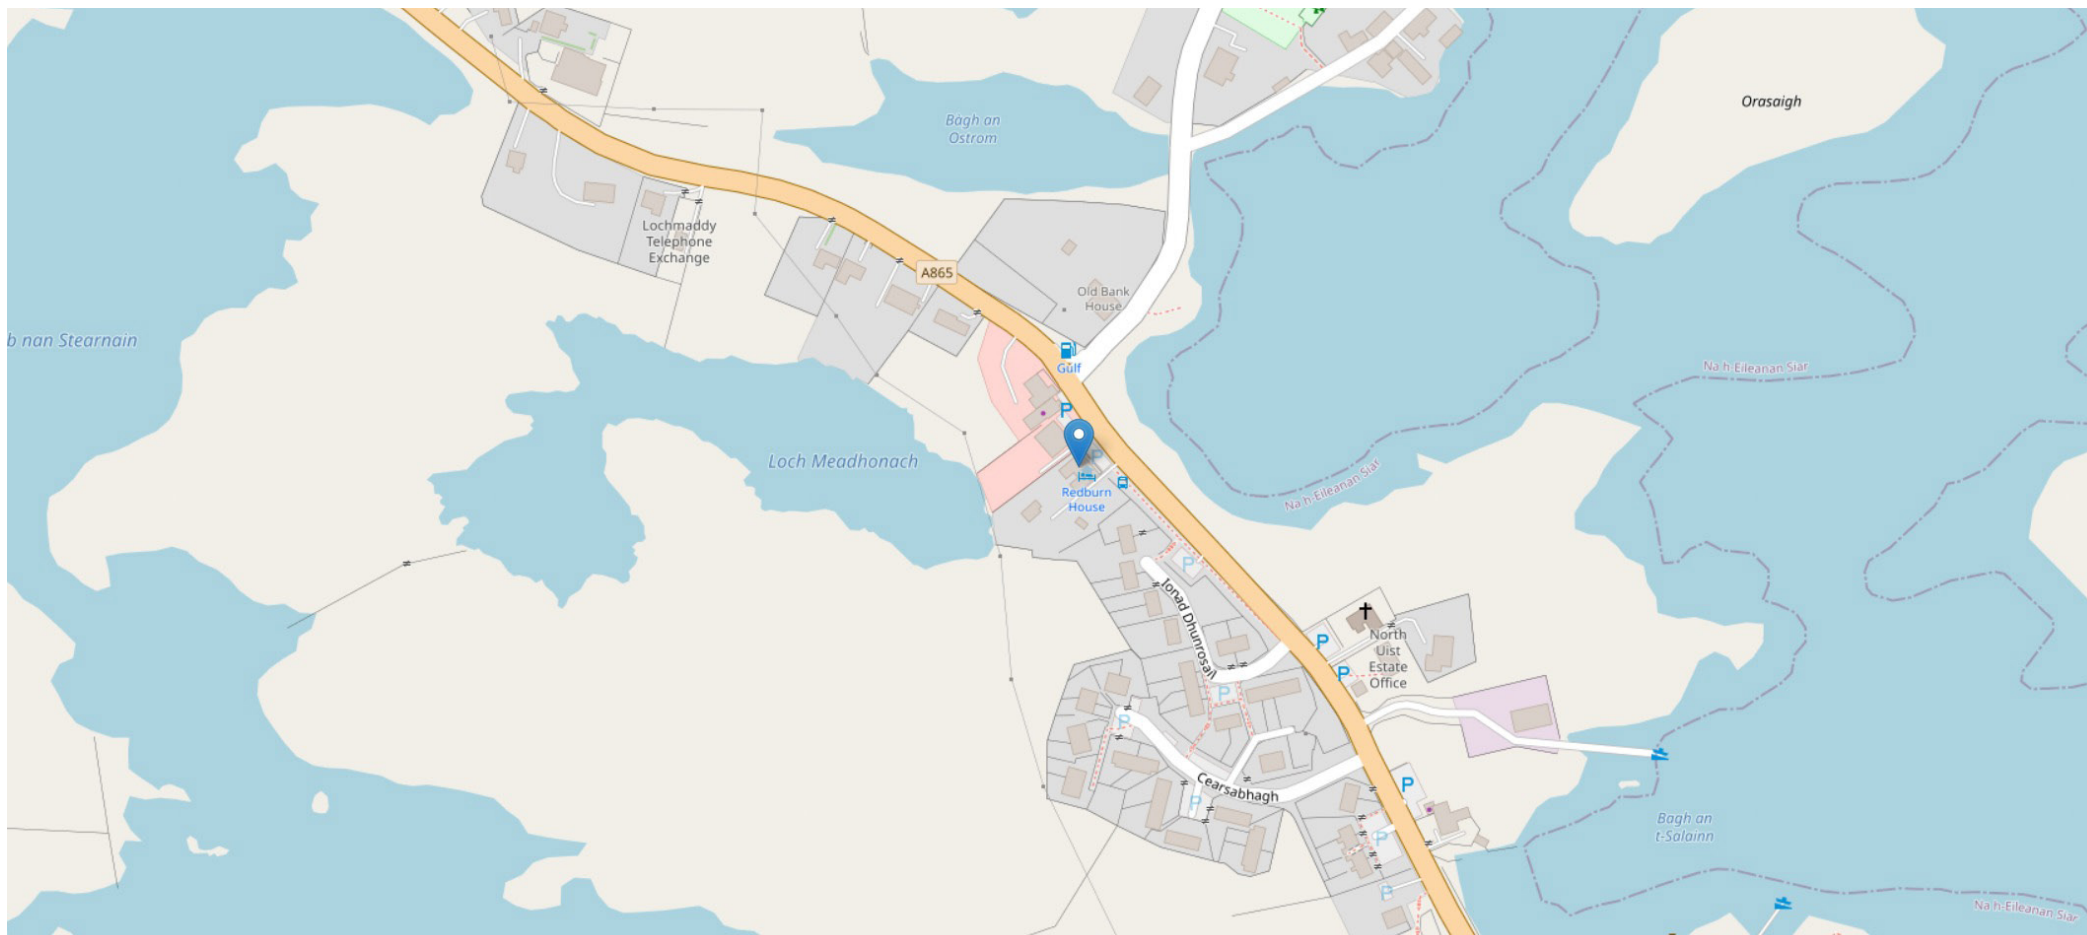

North Uist is a beautiful island of crystal clear waters with miles of stunning white powder beaches, machair and heather uplands. North Uist can be reached by ferry from Uig on Skye to Lochmaddy, or from Mallaig or Oban to Lochboisdale. It is also just an hour's flight from Glasgow to Ballivanich (Benbecula) airport.

The Outer Hebrides offers an abundance of wildlife and nature – from whales, dolphins, seals, otters, to golden eagles, sea eagles, and owls, plus many more. It is a bird watcher's paradise. There are excellent walking and cycling opportunities along the increasingly popular Hebridean Way, and it is the ideal spot for outdoor activities with water sports, world-class shooting, and fishing also available. North Uist has a vibrant art and music scene, with many up-and-coming artists and musicians studying locally in Lochmaddy.

Redburn House offers a fantastic opportunity for the new owner to run their own business whilst possibly enjoying a lifestyle rooted in creativity, nature, and outdoor adventure.
