Fleur De Lis comprises 26 luxurious one and two bedroom apartments providing generous accommodation and facilities along with the extremely high standard of finish. The development offers something to suit everyone, with some apartments benefiting from small courtyard gardens and others with balconies overlooking Druitt Gardens. Everyone can enjoy the elegantly furnished owners drawing room and fully furnished guest suite as well as stopping for a cup of tea at the Fleur De Lis Tea Rooms. A Concierge will be on hand to help answer any day to day questions and will keep an eye on your apartment should you wish to go away.

Built using local Portland stone, the attractively designed building is situated in the heart of Christchurch Conservation Area on the site of the town's old Cornfactor building – originally the central hub of the district's corn market dating back to the 1800's. With the beautiful Druitt Gardens on one side, the development also backs on the High Street with all its amenities including 11th Century Priory, Town Quay and pedestrianized shopping facilities. Home to a weekly Monday market and an annual food festival, Christchurch offers a diverse mix of attractions whether you enjoy a stroll by the water, a bite to eat at one of many local restaurants or taking in a show at the Regent Centre.
