DESCRIPTION

The Cottage is a beautiful stone built double fronted two bedroom property pleasantly situated within the pretty village of Newbrough. With origins dating back to the 1600s, The Cottage, which is currently used as a popular holiday cottage, has been fully renovated by the owners and enjoys many noteworthy character features throughout including deep window sills, exposed ceiling beams and original inglenook fireplace. Internally the accommodation, which is immaculately presented, comprises sitting room with original inglenook fireplace housing an Aarow wood burning stove and beamed ceiling. Karndean flooring flows throughout the ground floor of The Cottage. The breakfasting kitchen is fitted with a range of modern wall and floor units with complementary work surfaces incorporating a stainless steel sink with mixer tap over. Integrated appliances include a fridge, microwave, slimline dishwasher and electric oven with ceramic hob and extractor above. Off the kitchen is a cloakroom and a door provides access to the rear courtyard. Stairs lead up to the first floor where there are two good size bedrooms. The master bedroom boasts a cast iron fireplace insert. Bedroom two has a walk-in wardrobe and shelved cupboard. Both bedrooms enjoy views over the front aspect and fields beyond. The bathroom is stylishly fitted with a free standing bath, separate shower cubicle, pedestal wash hand basin and traditional high level WC. A door on the landing leads out to an impressive decked balcony providing a lovely seating area. Externally there is a lovely enclosed courtyard to the rear providing ample outdoor space with useful outbuildings including a laundry room with Belfast sink, oil fired boiler and space for a washing machine. The remaining outbuildings are used for storage and a log store.

LOCATION

The popular village of Newbrough is located on the north bank of the River South Tyne approximately 5 miles north-west of the market town of Hexham. There is a primary school, village pub and a Town Hall. The Northumberland national Park and International Dark Skies Park are both close by, offering fabulous scenery and views. There are excellent transport links with a regular bus service and good access to the A69 for travel east to Newcastle and west to Carlisle.
