DESCRIPTION

From award winning architects and builders, a superb, detached property in an exclusive gated development. Appleyard Close comprises of just three newly constructed luxury houses within a private setting in the heart of Whitchurch, a popular and picturesque Buckinghamshire village. The close is accessed via electrically operated double steel gates flanked by pedestrian gates, and the initial approach is walled either side of the entrance.

Plot 1 has handsome mellow brick elevations beneath a clay tile roof and attractive first floor dormer windows. This is a turnkey property, the interior fully decorated using a range of Farrow & Ball and Johnstons paint, in colours which compliment the elegant detailing such as the high skirting boards and tall windows that absorb lots of natural light.

Off the reception hall is a large cloakroom which has 'Burlington' sanitary fixtures including an oversize Edwardian basin on a chrome wash stand. The whole of the ground floor is adorned with Amtico wood grain flooring, and in the hall and kitchen is recessed LED downlighting. There is a study/family room and separate sitting room, the latter stretching the depth of the house and having a fireplace accommodating a Stovax Chesterfield steel and cast-iron woodburning stove, and a dual aspect with doors opening onto the garden.

The open plan room to the rear of the property is an exceptional space incorporating the traditional kitchen and two living or dining areas, all enjoying a view onto the terrace and lawn. The units are from 'Masterclass' and their Padstow shaker design in scotts grey and midnight blue with matching cornice, cladding panels, and plinth, alongside antique bronze knobs and cups. The surfaces and upstands are miage quartz. Integrated Siemens appliances are a larder fridge, a freezer, dishwasher, and double oven/grill. The Bora induction hob is in the island and has a countertop extractor, the island also facilitating a breakfast bar. Adjacent the kitchen is a generous utility and boot room fitted with more 'Masterclass' units in a timber effect, and this room can be entered from the garage.

On the first floor are three excellent double bedrooms, all served by their own ensuites, two being bathrooms, and each well-equipped and furnished in 'Burlington' suites.

OUTSIDE

Ahead of the integral garage the parking consists of Sureset flapjack coloured shingle. To the rear the garden is turfed and a buff Indian sandstone terrace has been laid.

LOCATION

The name of Whitchurch derives from the Old English Hwit + Cirice, and translates to White Church, almost certainly meaning stone built church. The area is known for its rich pastures and several copious springs.

To the west side of the village is the former site of Bolebec Castle. Walter Bolebec was one of the assessors of the Domesday survey and so pleased was William The Conqueror with his work that he gifted him The Manor of Whitchurch. A relative Hugh De Bolebec had the castle built. It stood until the 17th century when after falling into disrepair was virtually laid to waste during the Civil War. There are numerous footpaths traversing the earthworks from which they may be viewed. The Firs, a substantial Victorian house on the southern edge of the village was requisitioned by the war office in 1939 and used to test and develop weaponry earning it the nickname ‘Winston Churchill’s Toyshop.’

In ‘A History and Topography of Buckinghamshire’ by James Joseph Sheahan in 1862 Whitchurch is described as follows:

‘Here is a Silk Manufactory, at which about 30 females are employed. The other female villagers make straw plait and pillow lace. Bricks and tiles are manufactured here on an extensive scale. A weekly market at Whitchurch was granted in 1245, together with a fair on the Festival of St. John the Evangelist’.

Many of the houses in the village denote antiquity being built of plaster and brick, or wood and plaster, with the upper stories overhanging the lower ones, the famed artist Rex Whistler lived in Bolebec House on the road to Oving in the early to mid 1900’s and from his view painted ‘The Vale of Aylesbury’ in 1933.

Whitchurch is well served with a pub/restaurant, garage, general store, post office, antique shop, hairdressers, post office, excellent butchers and farm shop, beauty salon, well regarded combined primary school, and a doctor's surgery.

The surrounding market towns and villages provide a wealth of historical and interesting places to visit including Waddesdon Manor, Claydon House and Quainton Steam Railway. Extensive shopping facilities are situated at Aylesbury, Milton Keynes and Bicester where the renowned Bicester Village Retail Outlet can be found.

The A413 provides easy access into Aylesbury (circa 5 miles) where the rail connections are fast and convenient on the Chiltern Turbo reaching London Marylebone in under an hour. Services to Euston are available from Cheddington and Leighton Buzzard.

Other nearby towns of High Wycombe, Thame, and Princes Risborough can be accessed easily by road or rail and the M40 provides excellent access to London, Oxford, Birmingham, Heathrow and the M25.
