

An opportunity to purchase a pair of semi-detached Grade II Listed Georgian houses in South Harting Village which could, subject to planning and South Down National Park Authority approval via Chichester Council, offer a beautiful detached house.

Large gardens, various outbuildings to one property and the potential to add off road parking, again subject to planning approval. The houses were originally constructed as one detached dwelling.

The right hand cottage has been refurbished by the current owner and the left hand side cottage is currently rented out.
