THE LOCATION

Lesmahagow or Lesmahagae, is a small town in the historic county of Lanarkshire on the edge of moorland, near Lanark in the central belt of Scotland. It was also a civil parish and lies west of the M74, and southeast of Kirkmuirhill, which is approximately a ten-minute drive from Hamilton. The M74 is convenient and nearby, providing easy access both north and south-bound, with excellent road links to the surrounding towns and cities, including Glasgow and Edinburgh via the M8 motorway. It is also known as Abbey Green or the Gow.

The village offers a wide range of amenities, including the recently opened Tesco store and fuel station, which is complemented by a variety of local businesses - including a post office, two banks, beauty salon, hairdressing salons, florist, gift shop, café/deli, pharmacy, opticians, vets, medical surgery and dentist. This unique opportunity has a prime location on the main street of the town.

There are two primary schools, Milton Primary, which is in the process of having a new building constructed and Woodpark Primary, which recently moved to new premises. The newly constructed High School hosts the Lesmahagow Sports Facility, which is a multi-purpose sports and leisure centre. The village has a real community feel and active community council which hosts its own Highland Games, agricultural show and Christmas "open doors" evening for residents and visitors.
