The Cathedral town of Bury St Edmunds lies in West Suffolk at the heart of East Anglia famous for its Benedictine Abbey. The town has extensive facilities and amenities to cater for all walks of life and has exceptional transport links. The A14 bypasses the town and links the Midlands with the East coast. London via the M11 is 60 miles. The railway station offers services to Cambridge, Norwich and Ipswich with connections for London. A commuter rail link is available

This exceptionally well-presented detached house occupies a lovely position well placed for countryside walks in one direction and the town centre amenities in the other. The versatile accommodation over three floors offers considerable character and is complemented by a double garage, ample parking and a charming south-west facing garden.
