WESTWOOD HOUSE

WESTWOOD HOUSE

With a stunning three acres and glorious open views to the rear, this modern, uniquely styled four bedroom detached family home has an individual charm all of its own. The double height hallway allows natural light to stream through and invites you through the hallway into a sumptuous sitting room with clever glass design inviting the outside in. The modern 'entertaining dream' dining kitchen has storage galore with central island, large gas hob and double ovens, fantastic pantry and utility rooms off make it a real treat for socialising in this space.

Study, guest bathroom and guest bedroom with en-suite complete the ground floor.

With a double height landing space overlooking the entire entrance hall this truly unique home has a master suite to envy with fabulous views over open countryside and a 'hidden' dressing area and en suite bathroom with raised sumptuous 'spa' bath and wet room style shower.

Two further bedrooms both fantastic sizes and well appointed en-suites are complemented by the amazing view from each window.

A gated driveway with nicely planned planting gives a sense of seclusion and grandeur upon entering.

Outside to the rear there are spaces for entertaining and relaxing in privacy and seclusion with seating areas, raised patio areas and pond leading down to the acres of green gardens, tall trees and not forgetting the all important babbling brook to complete this truly bespoke home.
