Wessex 'Wessex' Park Home was once one of the top models in the Wessex range. 50' x 20' is a rarely available home size, a truly spacious home.

The plot, in our opinion, is one of the best on the park, being set back having a wide private driveway and with a secluded garden. The Sun Terrace takes advantage of the surrounding countryside views

Upton Glen Park, nestled in the Dorset Countryside is a short distance from the Jurassic coastal path.

This well presented home is well worth viewing to appreciate, not only the spacious accommodation but the stunning location and unique plot.
