South Lodge

Bwlchgwyn

Fine and Country West Wales are delighted to present South Lodge, a charming, characterful Gothic style stone built Cottage on the edge of Snowdonia National Park in the sought after location of Dyffryn Ardudwy.

This well presented character cottage is located in a sought after village location, offers many character features and has undergone a comprehensive improvement and refurbishment scheme in recent years.

There are sea views to the front, mountain views to the rear and within walking distance (approximately 15 minutes) to Benar Beach and all that has to offer.

This home has been used in recent years as a holiday home but would ideally suit a permanent resident looking to live in a glorious location on the edge of Snowdonia National Park.

Other features include an feature fireplace, refitted kitchen, a spacious side conservatory, detached garage, parking and wonderful mature cottage style gardens.

No onward chain viewing highly recommended.
