Located within this highly desirable hamlet of Beamond End, we offer this rare opportunity to purchase this beautiful detached, brick and flint character house, believed to have originally been built in 1886. Quest cottage is ideal for a family looking for a pretty countryside location with a large garden, yet within easy access of both Beaconsfield and High Wycombe with their fast rail links into London, Marylebone and easy access to the M40 motorway.

The property is presented in excellent condition and includes 4 bedrooms and two bathrooms to the first floor, sitting room, second reception room, kitchen, downstairs WC and garden room to the ground floor.

Outside there is a gravel driveway providing off street parking, a detached double garage with possible room to create another room above subject to planning permission.

The gardens are secluded and are principally laid to lawn but have well stocked cottage garden borders. There is a sunken garden that provides tranquility around a water feature and then there is a rear section, ideal to squirrel away children's play equipment,

Quest Cottage is a property that must be viewed by a buyer looking for a quintessential Chiltern brick and flint house of family size proportions in a quiet hamlet.
