Location: Situated high above the Market Town of Kendal within a former farmstead setting with splendid views across open countryside and the town to the distant fells and the Kent Estuary. The property can be found by taking the Sedbergh Road out of Kendal, and turning first right onto Hayclose Lane, follow the road a few yards and you will find Hayside Cottage sign posted with gated off-road parking.

Property Overview: Hayside Cottage is a charming detached Cumbrian cottage set amidst serene countryside near Kendal town. With picturesque views of The Helm, it offers convenient access to amenities and Oxenholme train station. The ground floor features a dining room, sitting room, kitchen, and a main bedroom with en-suite shower room, while upstairs boasts three double bedrooms and a shower room. Outside, a landscaped garden with a pond, gated driveway, integral garage and a garden room complete this idyllic cottage.

Stepping into the entrance porch a sash style window perfectly captures The Helm as a picture. With quarry tiled flooring another door leads to the dining room.

A delightful room connecting to the kitchen with the focal point being the Jotul coal fire sat on a flagged hearth with stone surround. Exposed beams. A delightful outlook over the front garden. A door leads to the sitting room and another to the concealed staircase leading to the first floor.

The sitting room is cosy and features a wood burner and again a pleasant outlook over the front and rear gardens.

The kitchen is equipped with a range of farmhouse style wall, base and drawer units with complementary working surfaces and inset stainless steel sink with half drainer. Kitchen appliances include a built-in Bosch oven and grill, induction hob and extractor. There is space for a upright fridge freezer.

Moving towards the rear of the property you will find the splendid main bedroom, offering ground floor living, perfect for multi-generational living. A large double bedroom with windows and French patio doors leading to the rear rockery garden and providing the room full of natural light. A door leads to the integral garage. Another door leads to a most useful en-suite with a three piece suite comprising of; a double walk-in shower, a vanity sink and W.C. Velux allows for natural ventilation and light.

Retracing your steps back into the dining room, a door opens to a concealed staircase leading to the first floor. There is a useful space at the bottom of stairs to hang everyday coats and store shoes.
