In detail

A very special two bedroom warehouse style apartment with private garden and off street parking, moments from Crystal Palace Park and excellent transport links.

Enjoying period and industrial charm beautifully blended throughout, the architect has taken full advantage of the high ceilings, creating a wonderful feeling of space.

With a reception area of 23'6ft, the open-plan design allows for various layouts, ensuring plenty of space for separate living, dining and lounging areas. The kitchen design also includes a range of storage, butlers sink, stone surfaces, a range cooker and copper touches.

There are two bedrooms, of which the master also benefits from a nook, which works really well as an area for a dressing table or study.

The outside space is charming and perfect for alfresco dining, with a low maintenance lawn, seating area and a shed for storage.

Sydenham Avenue is a popular location being moments from Crystal Palace Park, numerous transport links including Penge West, Penge East, Sydenham rail and also convenient for the 176 bus route to Tottenham Court Road and 197 between Croydon and Peckham.
