In detail

A light, bright 1930's, five bedroom, semi-detached house arranged over three floors and positioned on a highly sought after road in Upper Sydenham, close to several open green spaces, coffee shops, restaurants, transport links and good local schools.

Great care has been taken with this new home to create contemporary spaces with smart finishes that are bright and welcoming. Indicative of the 1930s era, the property enjoys beautiful parquet flooring finished in a walnut hue, wide curved bay windows and generous proportions throughout.

The entrance opens into a generous bright hallway creating a warm, welcome introduction into the very spacious accommodation. Comprising a through reception, a bespoke kitchen which sits next to the dining area with a large island topped in wood block, illuminated by sculptural matt black pendant light fittings. Bifold doors open onto a spacious levelled deck, and large lawned area beyond, surrounded by mature bushes and trees creating a lovely green backdrop.

The first floor provides three double bedrooms, a child's room / study and a generous sized family bathroom, whilst the upper floor benefits from a large, bright master bedroom with ensuite shower room including his and hers sinks and incredible far reaching green views.

The property also benefits from extensive storage space. Sydenham Park Road is a highly-regarded, residential road, well located for access to a wealth of coffee shops, and restaurants, and transport links including Sydenham and Forest Hill Overground- with direct connections to Shoreditch, London Bridge and Victoria
